

8 Easy Steps to Hangout with Shrink Rap Radio on Google+

1

Your Google Account is more than just Search.

Talk, chat, share, schedule, store, organize, collaborate, discover, and create. Use Google products from Gmail to Google+ to YouTube, view your search history, all backed up all the time and easy to find at (you guessed it) Google.com.

Take it all with you.

A Google Account lets you access all your stuff — Gmail, photos, and more — from any device. Search by taking pictures, or by voice. Get free turn-by-turn navigation, upload your pictures automatically, and soon even buy things with your phone using Google Wallet.

Share a little. Or share a lot.

1. Create a Gmail account

Click here to set up an account.

Follow the online instructions (If you already have an account, skip this step and sign in. Then go to step 3).

2

Your profile

Now that you have a Google Account, create your Google profile. It's how you represent yourself publicly on the web, and helps friends and family find each other easily. Your profile also lets you publicly "like" things you love on the web, so you and your friends benefit from each other's impeccable taste — in search results, on sites across the web, even on ads. Your profile is public, and can include as little as your name, or as much as you feel like adding — it's up to you. About profiles.

About Google+

Google+ is more than just another site to visit. It's a new way to communicate across all of Google. Whether you're using Maps, Gmail, YouTube, Search, or any other Google product, Google+ makes it easy to share the right things with the right people. About Google+.
